The St. Paul’s CORE Pack Program evolved through the collaborative efforts of the Archdiocese of New Orleans Office of Catholic Schools, Tulane University, St. Paul’s administration, teachers, and parents, who were committed to providing an educational experience for students with developmental disabilities to promote independence and self-determination within an inclusionary, Lasallian Catholic school environment.

In keeping with our LaSallian Core values, the St. Paul's community is committed to ensuring students in the CORE Pack program are full participants in the 5 La Sallian values, and therefore steeped in the culture of St. Paul's.
